Another First for Local Donor in Chest Drive

First "pro-rata" share in the Harbor Area has been given by Community Chest's current Com- merce and Industry drive in the set the pace last year.

Every firm solicited by Chest volunteers is invited to donate a "pro-rata" share, assessed for each firm according to business trends, profits, previous giving and employment, and taking into account trade association information, interviews with leading executives, etc.

Harbor Area pace setters are the Schreiber family, operators of the Bowl-O-Drome, well-known Torrance bowling alley. Within a few hours of the Commerce and Industry kick-off in Torrance, Bert Lynn, Harbor Area chairman, had brought in the Schreiber cheque, first pro-rata share to be received in the campaign, to Harbor Area headquarters.

This is the second successive year that the Bowl-O-Drome has led the field with its pro-rata share.

Torrance Attorney New City-to-City Committee Head

John J. Barton, Torrance Attorney, was elected Chairman of the City to City Committee for the next 12 months.

Mrs. Jack Erving was the unanimous choice for Vice-Chairman, and Mrs. John Mangan will serve as Secretary of the group.

Directors include Bill King, Charles Deck, Mrs. Naomi McVey, Mrs. Richard Florence, George Naylor, and Bob Ellis. Ellis was last year's Chairman.

The City to City Committee was organized to implement President Eisenhower's "People to People Program" designed to improve international relations by encouraging communities and citizens to interchange ideas, beliefs, customs, etc. Torrance's sister city is Konya Turkey, which was selected because of the Near Eastern city's participation in Turkey's defense of the free world.

Barton has been an attorney for eight years, four of them in Torrance, and is an active member of many organizations including the Torrance Chamber of Commerce, South Bay Toastmasters Club, Walteria Kiwanis Club, Walteria Businessmen's Association, Palos Verdes Riviera Homeowner's Association, Southwest Park Civic Association, and is one of the organizers of the Torrance Unitarian Church.

Barton is 35 years of age, and a graduate of the University of Nebraska and did graduate work at Crighton University. He's a Member of the South Bay California, and Nebraska Bar Associations.

The new chairman and his wife, Corrine, reside at 4160 Via Lado, Torrance, and are the proud parents of Camille (age 2) Pamela (age 4½) and Debra (age 7).

Chief Due Back from Convention

Police Chief Percy G. Bennett is due to return to Torrance sometime tonight from New York City, where he attended the annual Convention of the International Association of Chiefs of Police.
